Re: Extension of Our Services Concerning Negotiation of a New U.S.-
ROK Agreement for Cooperation (123 Agreement)

Dear Mr. Kim:

We are pleased to have the opportunity to extend from July 1 through December 31, 2013, ("Extended Term") our previous agreement to provide services concerning negotiation of a new U.S.-ROK Agreement for Cooperation. I confirm that our services will include responding to the ROK Government's questions and requests with respect to the matters related to the 123 Agreement that you listed in your email July 3, 2013.

We are able to continue our services, during the Extended Term, at the same $40,000 monthly fixed fee on the basis of the understandings set forth below.

During the second half of 2013, our services will continue to include responding fully to the ROK Government's requests and questions concerning negotiation of the 123 Agreement. However, our services concerning any matters outside of this scope must be pursuant to a mutually agreed separate fee arrangement for such work.

We will limit our expenditure of professional time, during a single month, so that our professional time, at our standard rates (the standard fee equivalent) for the attorneys who provide these services (as shown in our monthly reports) does not exceed $50,000 ("ceiling on time"). Before we reach the standard fee equivalent of $40,000, we will advise the ROK Government and seek to complete our work on assignments that are due that month within the $50,000 ceiling on time. However, if work remains to be done when this ceiling is reached, we will consult with the ROK

Government to reschedule our completion of those assignments so that the work may be performed in a subsequent month. Our total invoice to the ROK Government will be $40,000, of course, notwithstanding any expenditure of time that exceeds the standard fee equivalent of $40,000.

As in the past, we will use our best efforts to make efficient use of our time and consult with you and your colleagues if we perceive that a full response to questions and requests in a single month will result in a standard fee equivalent that will likely exceed $40,000.

As during the previous six-month period, we will continue to provide a monthly report, along with each monthly invoice, of our total professional time and the standard fee equivalent. This information should help guide our discussions with the ROK Government concerning the priority of various questions and requests, our views concerning the time that will likely be required to respond and possible means of reducing the scope of our responses, if necessary, to avoid exceeding the ceiling on time.

If the foregoing terms for our representation of the ROK Government are acceptable, please provide your signature, where indicated below. Our services will continue to be subject to the general terms specified in the countersigned engagement letter dated February 12, 2013.

We are pleased to have had the opportunity to provide legal services concerning these important matters and look forward to continuing our work on behalf of the ROK Government.

Sincerely yours,

James A. Glasgow
